

RON BULL / TORONTO STAR

A WELL-DESERVED BREAK

Quadriplegic Dave Shannon, flanked by supporters, takes a quick break from his cross-country power-wheelchair trip yesterday to address a crowd at Trinity Square. Shannon, who has traveled 3,500 kilometres, is promoting disability awareness and raising funds for disabled persons.